

Privacy Policy

Your privacy is important to us. It is the policy of HANDS Safe to respect your privacy regarding any information that we may collect through the HANDS Safe application and other websites that we own and operate.

We request personal information only when we truly need it to provide a service. We do so through fair and lawful means, with your knowledge and consent. We also inform you of the reason for collection and how it will be used.

We retain the collected information only for as long as necessary to provide the requested service. When we store data, we protect it within commercially acceptable means to prevent loss and theft, as well as unauthorized access, disclosure, copying, use, or modification. We do not publicly share personally identifiable information or share it with third parties, except when required by law. You are free to decline our request for personal information, understanding that we might not be able to provide certain desired services.

The continued use of our website will be considered acceptance of our practices regarding privacy and personal information. If you have any questions about how we handle user data and personal information, please contact us.

User Commitment, the user commits to making appropriate use of the content and information that HANDS Safe offers on the website, including but not limited to:

- A) Not engaging in activities that are illegal or contrary to good faith and public order;
- B) Not spreading propaganda or content of a racist, xenophobic nature, or content related to online betting houses, games of chance and gambling, any type of illegal pornography, terrorism endorsement, or against human rights;
- C) Not causing harm to the physical (hardware) and logical (software) systems of HANDS Safe, its suppliers, or third parties, not introducing or spreading computer viruses or any other hardware or software systems capable of causing the aforementioned damages.

We hope this is clear, and as mentioned earlier, if there's something you're unsure about whether you need it or not, it's generally safer to keep cookies enabled if you interact with one of the features you use on our site. This policy is effective as of September 2022.
